Operation Freedom Paws is committed to protecting your privacy and handling your personal information responsibly.

We collect and use this information solely to:

- Evaluate your suitability for volunteering
- Communicate with you about your application, orientation, training, and scheduling
- Comply with legal requirements (including background checks where applicable)
- Manage our volunteer program and insurance obligations
- Match volunteers with appropriate roles involving our service dogs and program participants

We do not sell your personal information. We only share it with the following groups when necessary:

- Trusted service providers (e.g., background check companies) under strict confidentiality agreements
- Legal authorities when required by law
- Program staff who need to know for legitimate volunteer coordination purposes on a limited basis.

We take reasonable security measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, loss, or misuse. Volunteer information is retained only as long as necessary for the purposes above or as required by law (typically after your volunteer service ends).

You have the right to access, correct, or request deletion of your personal information we hold, subject to legal exceptions. To exercise these rights or if you have questions about our privacy practices, please visit <https://operationfreedompaws.org/contact/> for how to contact us.
